

Are you a veteran or family member of a veteran in the Tampa Bay area?

Here is your chance to tell your story as part of the acclaimed Telling Project.

Through performance, The Telling Project puts veterans and military family members in front of their communities to share their stories. We give veterans and military family members the opportunity to speak, and their communities the opportunity to listen.

Interviews will take place in the Tampa Bay area December 3–6, 2014 followed by rehearsals and five performances in March and April 2015. All performances will be free and open to the public.

HUMANITIES

Telling: Tampa Bay is a partnership of The Telling Project and the Florida Humanities Council with support from the Bob Woodruff Foundation and the National Endowment for the Humanities. The Telling Project has put veterans and military family members on stage in fifteen states, raising awareness of military experiences on a person-to-person, community level since 2008.
